Readings in Greek History

By IDA CARLETON THALLON, Vassar College

638 pages

$2.00

These translations from the sources prepared for use in ancient history classes furnish the student with full material in the field covering the time between Homer and the battle of Chaeronea, and make available much that was hitherto out of reach of any but those acquainted with Greek. The intensive treatment renders the volume of equal value to students in Secondary Schools and undergraduates in College.

Latin for the First Year

By W. B. GUNNISON, Ph.D., Principal, and WALTER S. HARLEY, A.M., Instructor in Latin, Erasmus Hall High School, Brooklyn

344 pages, $1.00

A New Latin Text for Beginners

based on the Caesar vocabulary, but so arranged as to prepare for the study of other Latin authors as well.

Its Chief Aims

are to achieve the utmost simplicity of treatment consistent with thoroughness and to make the study of Latin interesting.

Distinguishing Features

Gradual and logical development of inflections.
Omission of non-essentials of syntax.
Frequent summaries and reviews.
Fables and anecdotes from Latin classics for sight reading.
Excellence of typography, arrangement, and illustrations.

THE COMPLETE PLANT
ESTABLISHED 1885

THE CLASSICAL WEEKLY is published by The Classical Association of the Atlantic States, weekly, on Saturdays, from October 1 to May 31 inclusive, except in weeks in which there is a legal or school holiday, at Barnard College, Broadway and 120th St., New York City.

All persons within the territory of the Association who are interested in the language, the literature, the life and the art of ancient Greece and ancient Rome, whether actually engaged in teaching the Classics or not, are eligible to membership in the Association. Application for membership may be made to the Secretary-Treasurer, Charles Knapp, Barnard College, New York. The annual dues (which cover also the subscription to THE CLASSICAL WEEKLY) are two dollars. Within the territory covered by the Association (New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia) subscription is possible to individuals only through membership in The Classical Association of the Atlantic States. To institutions in this territory the subscription price is one dollar per year. Outside the territory of the Association the subscription price of THE CLASSICAL WEEKLY is one dollar per year. If affidavit to bill for subscription is required, the fee must be paid by the subscriber. Subscribers in Canada or other foreign countries must send 30 cents extra for postage.
